

Tampa Bay MAGAZINE

November/December 2012

Holiday Gift Guide

Diamonds are still a girl's best friend and are always in good taste. These oval-shaped 18k white gold hoop earrings have 236 full-cut round pave diamonds set so that they glitter from both front and back. These are from International Diamond Center at 3696 Ulmerton Road in Clearwater, or 10330 North Dale Mabry Highway in Tampa.

Art-to-wear jewelry doesn't have to break the bank to be a great gift. Nilson de Assis' unique jewelry, such as this amethyst neck piece, is handcrafted in Brazil for the nonprofit Alegria and is available at Nancy's Fancy "jewelry, accessories and other must-haves," 342 Main Street in Dumedin.

Someone who appreciates functional artwork is apt to enjoy using this handmade stoneware bowl that bears the signature curves and textures of potter Ira Burhans. It is from Clay and Paper Gallery of Art at 362 Main Street in Dumedin.

For a music lover, you can blend modern technology and style with these Street by 50 over-ear headphones that are wired to deliver crisp, clean sound and enhanced bass. Using Klear Technology instead of Bluetooth, they boast longer battery life and less interference and feedback. A cable is provided to transform these wireless headphones for airplane usage. These headphones are available at SMS authorized retailers.

Almost anyone can use this retro design styled new VTECH cordless phone with features and functions that are anything but old school. Aficionados of the hit series Mad Men will be particularly enthralled. The VTECH LS6195 phone is available at vtechphones.com.